The Long and Short of It

The focus of your City's elected officials and staff is to make Tamarac as strong as we possibly can today, while putting the pieces in place to ensure an even better tomorrow. The short-term focus is on safety, maintaining or enhancing property values, financial stability and prudent maintenance of existing services and facilities; the things you told us were your priorities.

Tamarac is putting an increased emphasis on the safety and security of the homes and buildings in the City through improvements to the permitting process and enhanced customer education. While they may sometimes seem like an annoyance, building permits help ensure that the work is done up to code standards because City inspectors check the job at key phases. You'll find more about the permitting process elsewhere in Tam-A-Gram.

Financial stability relies in great measure on fiscal prudence: not spending more than we have and finding ways to make limited dollars go farther. Among the many measures the City is taking is the pavement rejuvenation project that you'll see on local roads over the coming months. The process extends the life of the road and helps delay the expense of repaving.

The City's fiscal policies are so effective that Fitch, the global financial ratings agency, has affirmed Tamarac's General Obligation bonds at AA, noting the strong financial profile: "The City demonstrates sound financial management, as evident in its conservative budgeting, consistently positive operating results and robust reserves."

And what about tomorrow? As the banners around town underscore, our parks and recreation system is one of the key factors that make Tamarac "The City For Your Life". The median age of our residents continues to decrease, and so our plans for programs and services need to change as well. The City recently discussed the Parks, Recreation and Social Services Master Plan – a 20-year concept that ensures Tamarac residents will continue to enjoy the amenities that help make this City so special. It was the beginning of a multi-phased conversation to identify project opportunities as well as potential funding sources over the long-term.

The long and short of it is that good things are happening in Tamarac. Property values are slowly rising. New communities are opening, with businesses to support them not far behind. The City is becoming a more attractive place for major companies to locate. None of this is by chance, and it doesn't always happen quickly. But rest assured, the sound strategic plan Tamarac has put in place for meeting immediate as well as long-term needs is paying off.

Helping Property Owners Build it Right the First Time

Major home improvement projects like remodeling your kitchen, replacing windows or putting a new roof on your home can be stressful. Obtaining permits may feel like just one more hassle in an already overwhelming process.

But it's actually a vitally important step that Tamarac requires to protect homeowners from headaches during and after the project. It also helps the City to ensure buildings are safe and built to standards that protect property values, which benefits the community as a whole.

Permits must be obtained before work commences. Licensed contractors can do so, as can some homeowners – specifically those who own and live in single family homes. The permitting process ensures your project plans are safe and meet the minimum criteria of the Florida Building Code. Because plans are reviewed by certified examiners in advance of work, concerns can be identified and corrected before costly mistakes are made. Additionally, one of the first steps taken by the Building department is to verify contractors' licenses and insurance.

Working with an unlicensed contractor comes with risks. Not only do owners have limited legal recourse if there is a dispute with the contractor, they can actually be fined up to $5,000 for hiring unlicensed contractors. Owners may also be liable for medical bills for on the job injuries of individuals working in their homes.

Not obtaining permits also comes with some serious risks. If non-permitted work is discovered after the fact, owners can end up paying double permit fees, and worse, having to partially or completely demolish a project if needed to enable proper inspection. Non-permitted projects can also cause difficulties in selling a home, or making insurance claims.

Tamarac is committed to maintaining a vibrant community for our residents, and is actively working to make the permitting process as painless as possible. That's why the City now offers e-Permits which allows online plans submission, review and approval. The system reduces plan review time, and allows customers access 24/7 to review comments during processing. Permits can also be obtained by visiting the City of Tamarac Building department at 6011 Nob Hill Road.

Residents who want to learn the "ins and outs" of the building permitting process – as well as the risks of working with unlicensed contractors – can attend one of Tamarac's monthly training classes hosted by the Building department. The information provided in the class is designed for use now or for future projects.

To reserve your seat please call (954) 597-3420.

The Faces of Tamarac

Would you like your face to represent the spirit of Tamarac? Here's your chance.

"This is Tamarac" is the theme of a new public art project, in which black and white portraits will be displayed in a representation of our community's spirit. Individuals who want to participate are invited to attend an open photo session. There is one scheduled for April 11th, 10:00 am – 12:00 pm at the Community Garage Sale at the Tamarac Recreation Center, and another May 9th, 12:00 – 2:00 pm at the Tamarac Community Center. The selected photos will be enlarged to 2' x 4' size and showcased in an art display at the Community Center.

Tamarac resident Susan Buzzi is the photographer for the project, which is part of Broward County's 100th celebration. Specifically, Tamarac is participating in the Inside Out Program, a global initiative which gives communities a platform to express themselves through black and white photographs.

This project was proposed by the Public Art Committee, and will be administered by its members, the Community Development department and the Broward County Cultural Division.

Arbor Day in Tamarac

Tamarac celebrated Arbor Day in the City by handing out saplings to 200 students at Challenger Elementary. As part of the Fourth Grade Foresters program, members of our Public Services department explained the importance of trees in the environment as well as ways to care for and feed their new sabal palm. Tamarac has been certified as a Tree City USA for 22 years.

Parks and Recreation Master Planning

Do you know how Tamarac's Aquatic Center came to be? Or the dog park, or a new and improved recreation center? Through long-range vision. And it will take that same ability to look into the future to ensure the high quality of parks and recreation facilities and services continues for years to come. That's why the City initiated the Parks Master Plan process. It analyzed existing resources, assessed needs with residents and staff, and offered up ideas to help meet those requests over the next 20 years.

Tamarac's median age grows younger; it's now 47. We're no longer a community solely for retirees, and the programs and services we offer -- now and in the future -- must reflect the broad range of needs.

What are some of the ideas that have been put forward in the Master Plan?

- Enhance the attractiveness and use of Caporella Park with additional park elements;
- Development of Waters Edge Park along University Drive and NW 61st Street; and
- Development of the Aquatic Center annex.

The projects would be engineered to improve social and physical mobility, ensure efficient use of energy and natural resources, and done in a way that will sustain or increase property values.

Long-range planning doesn't happen over the short term. These concepts will be fully vetted - with costs attached to them - and then prioritized. City Commissioners will determine which of the ideas make the most sense to proceed with and then approve the method (or methods) of financing the projects. All are designed to ensure that Tamarac residents continue to enjoy the outstanding quality of life that our parks help provide, for years to come.

Fitch Lauds City's Sound Financial Management

Fitch, a global financial ratings agency, has affirmed Tamarac's General Obligation bonds at AA, noting the strong financial profile. "The City demonstrates sound financial management, as evident in its conservative budgeting, consistently positive operating results and robust reserves. The City continues to produce operating surpluses and add to reserves as revenue prospects improve. Given the City's track record of outperforming its budgets, Fitch expects any actual deficit to be modest, with minimal, if any impact on high reserve levels."

The ratings agency also noted Tamarac's low debt and affordable carrying costs, as well as satisfaction with the progress of pension funding. They project the City will retain a sound financial position and solid reserves.

Shape Tamarac's Future

Would you like to have a voice in planning the City's future community development and housing initiatives?

The City of Tamarac is about to embark on our next five year consolidated planning process to align and focus funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, via Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) and Home Investment Partnerships (HOME) programs. These funds make a significant impact in the services and assistance the City is able to provide.

The consolidated planning process is a collaboration within the community to identify priorities, and to establish a unified vision for housing and community development actions. Residents and neighborhood groups can help shape these programs into effective, coordinated neighborhood and community development strategies.

Three public meetings have been scheduled to obtain comments or input. Additionally, there is a 30-day review period (May 25, 2015 – June 24, 2015) during which public comments may be submitted to City staff.

Please contact the City's Community Development department, Housing Division at (954) 597-3549 with any questions.

BSO Tamarac First to Launch HomeWatch Program

It is upsetting when valuable belongings are lost or stolen. Feelings of frustration, fear or violation can make it challenging to accurately identify and describe missing items to authorities.

That's why BSO Tamarac district is unveiling a free service to residents called HomeWatch, which allows people to log identifying information about their valuables for easy retrieval in the event of a loss. Tamarac is the first BSO district to introduce this program, which is so innovative that BSO will be rolling it out countywide.

"Being the victim of a crime is traumatic, and we hope this new program will make reporting stolen property easier for our residents," said BSO Tamarac District Chief Neal Glassman. "It's also a great resource for us in recovering stolen property."

HomeWatch is part of the Rapid System managed by Business Watch International (BWI) and used by the Broward Sheriff's Office to cross-check serial numbers of items received by pawn stores, second hand dealers and scrap metal companies with items reported stolen.

To register, simply visit www.southrapid.com, and click the "HomeWatch" link to reach the new user registration page. Once registered, you can enter identifying information about your valuables, including the make, model, color, serial number, assessed value and even photographs. Then, if you're ever a victim of crime, you can use this list to identify what property is missing, and to quickly send information on missing items to law enforcement. You can even make a copy for your homeowner's insurance.

While Tamarac continues to experience reduced crime rates, it's always best to be prepared. BSO Tamarac has already presented this program to numerous Homeowners Associations as part of its ongoing community outreach. If you want a presentation at your next meeting, call the crime prevention office at (954) 720-2225.

Cracking Down on Unlicensed Contractors

BSO Tamarac district, along with representatives of Florida's Division of Insurance Fraud and Homeland Security, recently conducted a successful "Unlicensed Contractor Enforcement" operation in Tamarac. During the two day operation, 21 people were identified as unlicensed contractors ready to do work on home improvement projects such as kitchen and bathroom remodeling, window replacement, and the installation of air conditioning systems. Homeowners should always ask contractors to confirm their licensing and insurance before signing a contract, to protect themselves legally and ensure the work performed is up to code.

Celebrating Four Decades of Service

Congratulations to the Tamarac Fire Department on their 40th anniversary.

Tamarac Historical Society Seeks Hall of Fame Nominations

If you know a person or organization you believe belongs in the City of Tamarac Hall of Fame, the Tamarac Historical Society wants to hear from you. It is now accepting nominations for the Second Annual Hall of Fame celebration planned for July 13, 2015.

The primary consideration is the contribution or service rendered in the public interest of the City. Nomination instructions, including qualification criteria, and forms are available at www.tamarachistoricalsociety.webs.com. You can also call the Society at (954) 597-3629 for more information.

In Memorium

It is with great sadness that we note the passing of Joe Schreiber. Mr. Schreiber served Tamarac as a City Commissioner for five years and then as Mayor from 1997-2006.

Recycling Program Helps Residents Go Green

In April we celebrate Earth Day, a time to reflect on how to protect the environment. The City of Tamarac is proud to offer an extensive curbside recycling program that enables residents to do their part to conserve natural resources, reduce landfill and reduce pollution. Confused about what can and can't be recycled? The chart below makes recycling in Tamarac a snap.

TAMARAC RECYCLING PROGRAM DO'S AND DON'TS
Do Recycle	Don't Recycle
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Glass bottles and jars</li> <li>• Cans: aluminum, steel, &amp; tin</li> <li>• Paper</li> <li>• Junk mail</li> <li>• Milk cartons</li> <li>• Juice boxes</li> <li>• Cardboard (24x24 pieces or less)</li> <li>• Plastic containers with numbers 1-7 in the recycling triangle on bottom of container (no caps or lids)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Plastic bags</li> <li>• Plastic container caps or lids</li> <li>• Styrofoam</li> <li>• Plastic "to go" containers</li> <li>• Miscellaneous plastic, e.g. toys</li> <li>• Miscellaneous metals, e.g. pots, pans, utensils, scrap metal</li> <li>• Window or auto glass</li> <li>• Light bulbs</li> <li>• Mirrors</li> <li>• Glass or ceramic cookware</li> <li>• Pizza box bottoms or other materials with food residue</li> </ul>
Important tips
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tamarac uses "single-stream" recycling, which means that all recyclable materials can be placed in the same cart.</li> <li>• All materials should be clean and dry. One dirty product can contaminate thousands of pounds of plastic.</li> <li>• Do not place any plastic bags in the recycling carts!</li> <li>• NEVER put hazardous waste or old electronics in your recycling or regular garbage. Tamarac residents can participate in drop-off events for these items, hosted in conjunction with other local cities. More information, including a schedule, is available at www.tamarac.org.</li> </ul>

For further information on Tamarac's recycling program, visit www.tamarac.org.

RECYCLEBANK REWARDS PROGRAM

Need more incentive to recycle? Tamarac residents can participate in Recyclebank, an innovative recycling rewards program through which you can earn points for recycling and for logging in everyday "green activities." These points can be redeemed for discounts from dozens of local and national brands.

For more information, or to create an online account, visit www.recyclebank.com/wm.

Caporella Aquatic Center a Real BFF

If you have visited the Caporella Aquatic Center you won't be surprised to learn that it has been voted one of Broward's Family Favorites, or BFFs, by Broward Family Life magazine. It was recognized in the category of "Favorite Place to Swim n' Splash." With its zero depth entry and children's water playground, it's a perfect place for summer fun. The center also features a 25-meter heated swimming pool, where it hosts swim lessons for youths and adults, as well as classes including proactive arthritis water exercise and Aqua Zumba. It truly offers something for everyone in the family.

Rejuvenating City Streets

Tamarac has begun a pavement rejuvenation project that will extend the life of nearly all City roads. If you haven't noticed the roadwork yet you probably will over the coming weeks, as an estimated 85% of the roads will be treated. The process will require sections of the street to be closed during the short application period; but one lane will always be passable. Workers will be on site to ensure a smooth flow of traffic.

Residents will be notified by door hangers the day before their streets are to be treated, so they can plan accordingly. This preventive maintenance process is a cost-effective way to extend the life expectancy of the asphalt and ensure a smooth ride for years to come. Please call the Public Services department at (954) 597-3700 with any questions.

Walmart Grand Opening

The City of Tamarac warmly welcomes the new Walmart Neighborhood Market on the northwest corner of McNab and Pine Island roads. This great addition to our local retail business community is just another sign of Tamarac's resurgence.

Financial Aid for Code Repairs

Tamarac has expanded its Neighborhood Improvement Plan, called NIP IT 2.0, to include qualifying homeowners citywide in need of financial assistance to correct certain code violations. In addition to the geographic expansion, the maximum amount of assistance has been increased from $1,000 to $2,500.

NIP IT 2.0 enables the City to collaborate with homeowners to address violations that affect curb appeal, helping to maintain a vibrant community and protecting property values for all Tamarac residents.

Residents qualify for NIP IT 2.0 assistance based on income and assets, and cannot have current code liens on the property. Annual income limits to qualify (per household) are as follows:

Family Size	Very Low Income (Maximum Annual Amount*)	Low Income (Maximum Annual Amount*)	Moderate Income (Maximum Annual Amount*)
1	$24,150	$38,650	$57,960
2	$27,600	$44,200	$66,240
3	$31,050	$49,700	$74,520
4	$34,500	$55,200	$82,800
5	$37,300	$59,650	$89,520
6	$40,050	$64,050	$96,120
7	$42,800	$68,450	$102,720
8	$45,550	$72,900	$109,320

*Maximum annual amount is based upon 2014 HUD guidelines. Subject to change.

To learn more about the program, and which improvements qualify, contact the Community Development office at (954) 597-3425.
